Board

For the duration of the colloquium, you are guest of the Alexander von Humboldt Foundation. The Humboldt Foundation will pay board for you from 31 May to 2 June.

Travel Costs and Accommodation

On application, the Alexander von Humboldt Foundation will grant a lump-sum conference allowance for early career researchers attending from outside Toronto.

Conference Documents / Personal Data

To facilitate scientific contacts during the colloquium further, we will print a conference volume.

We therefore ask you to kindly introduce yourself by 7 September 2012 by submitting a brief biography, an abstract of your current scientific projects with title, your most important publications (maximum 3) and a recent photo online at <http://avhto2012.abstract-management.de>

Name Tags

We strongly encourage you to wear your name tag during the entire conference, as it will make it easier for all participants to address each other during discussions, etc.

Privacy Policy

By registering for the meeting you are agreeing to allow your personal data to be recorded and saved. Any personal data that you enter will only be recorded and saved for the purposes of the respective event.

Photographer during the Meeting

We would like to inform you that photographs might be taken by staff of the Alexander von Humboldt Foundation or a photographer during the colloquium. The photographs taken may be published by the Alexander von Humboldt Foundation in the context of information and public relations work. They will not be used for commercial purposes. If you are not in agreement with the publication of photographs in which you feature, please inform us before the beginning of the colloquium.

Liability

We must advise you that you participate at your own risk. We ask for your understanding that neither the Alexander von Humboldt Foundation nor Conventus can be held liable for any personal injury or property damage suffered during travel to and from as well as during the meeting.
